

Boar Finds Way
To Beat Heat
At Riverdale Zoo

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

Dutch Tug Leaves
Vancouver Towing
Three Corvettes

SCORE BOARD OF AIR BATTLES—Captain Arthur E. Nelson of Tarrant City, Alabama, puts the finishing touches to his personal score board of aerial victories over Russian-built M.I.G.-15 fighters in Korea. The young F-86 Sabre-jet pilot needs only one more "kill" to become the second ace in aviation history. The first to achieve this honor was Capt. James Jabara of Wichita, Kansas, who flew the same type jet fighter against the same enemy planes and downed his 67th and 68th M.I.G.'s in May. Capt. Nelson's wingman, John D. Hingorford, and crew chief, T-Sgt. Percy H. Allen, look on approvingly.—Central Press Canadian.

TRIPLE TOW—Bound for Hamburg, Germany, with three surplus corvettes in tow is the Dutch tug MY Gowerd Zee, said to be the world's largest. In the photo above taken as she left Vancouver, the tug has two corvettes in tow and one lashed alongside. Close out of harbor, all three vessels were placed in tow astern. The corvettes will be fitted out as whaling ships.

BEAT GETTING YOU—Down without a fur coat it's hot these days, but pity the poor boars who have to wear them. This Kodak boar at Toronto's Riverdale Zoo decided this little pool was just the place in which to spend a hot day.

DEWEY VISITS WITH MME. CHIANG KAI-SHENG—On his recent tour of the Far East, Governor Thomas E. Dewey made a stop-over on the Pacific island of Formosa, where he was received by Chinese Nationalist exiles. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other Nationalist leaders. Here, the governor is shown chatting with Mme. Chiang Kai-shek at a reception luncheon in his honor.—Central Press Canadian.

"GRANDMA" FRANCO CALIGIT OFF GUARD—Generalissimo Francisco Franco, addressing the first meeting of his exiled cabinet, which convened at Montserrat, announced that the friendship with the Western powers and the rearmament of Spain were the major items of his policy. In a lighter moment, General Franco is shown playing with his granddaughter, five-month-old Maria De La Esperanza, held by his daughter, the Marchioness De Villaverde.—Central Press Canadian.

CANADIANS PARADE IN DETROIT'S BIRTHDAY PROCESSION—Taking part in Detroit's 250th anniversary celebrations, these R.C.M.P. took part in the grand parade of 25,000 persons down the city's main streets. Also in the procession, largest in Detroit's history, were 100 R.C.M.P. officers, an R.C.A.F. band, and the 81st Regimental Band from St. Thomas, Ont.—Central Press Canadian.

ON FOUR-WHEEL TOUR—The Rt. Hon. Anthony Brien, fifth Deputy Leader of Britain's Conservative Party and former Foreign Secretary, is shown in this informal photograph with L. Robert Carr, of London, Conservative member of parliament who is accompanying Mr. Brien on a four-week tour of Canada and the United States. The photo was taken on the sports deck on the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France.

POISON KILLS PRIZE HOLSTEINS—In 18 days, five Holstein heifers, prize winners, died in a farm near the town of Palmyra, Ont. The heifers, mostly prize-winners, are believed to have been poisoned through milk. One of the prize calves still alive is being by Jack Macdonald.—Central Press Canadian.

EXCHANGE OF AIR FORCE COURTESIES—In a ceremony at Fort Ques, the R.C.A.F.'s Thunderbird squadron marked completion of a full year's operation on the Korean airfield. A presentation was made to the squadron of a silk flag bearing the insignia of the U.S. Military Air Transport Service, under whose operational control the Thunderbirds have been carrying out their Pacific flights. In return, 428 squadron presented a hand-painted copy of its famous Thunderbird badge to M.A.T.S. (shown at left) is Colonel Westworth W. Goss, M.A.T.S. chief of staff, who the squadron badge received from the Thunderbirds. Next is Wing Commander J. K. Macdonald, Antigonish, N.S., 428 squadron commanding officer, with the M.A.T.S. flag he received from Col. Goss.—Central Press Canadian.

NOOTKAN LOOKS SKEEL, HITS ITS TARGET—During a bombardment of targets on the east coast of Korea, H.M.C.S. Nootka fired her 10,000 lb. shells with some accuracy. Nootka, a ship of the Royal Canadian Navy, was one of the ships that took part in the bombardment. Nootka, a ship of the Royal Canadian Navy, was one of the ships that took part in the bombardment. Nootka, a ship of the Royal Canadian Navy, was one of the ships that took part in the bombardment.

FIRST LAP OF A MORTUARY JOURNEY—The first-aided cadet containing the body of Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, M. I. E. chief of naval operations, is shown being taken aboard the ship which will transport the body to the U.S. for burial. The admiral died unexpectedly in Saigon after two hours' illness. He was on a tour of Europe, Atlantic and Pacific oceans and had planned to leave for home shortly.—Central Press Canadian.

LEOPARD SKIN RUG—MR. AND MRS. HUGH V. GILFILLAN—The couple, who are shown with the most important skin rug sent them by their son, Sgt. Elmer H. Gilfillan, from Korea, where he is serving with the R.C. Army. Korean General General Shouk Changwon has been quoted in New York as saying the rug is worth $100,000 and is a "priceless national treasure." Formerly owned by Queen Min, it is 18 feet 11 inches by eight feet in size and is made up of 48 matched leopard skins. Sgt. Gilfillan wrote his mother that he brought the rug from a Korean and that it came from the Chang Duk Palace in Korea.

TO VISIT CANADA—The Lord Mayor of London, Sir Derek Lawson is scheduled to arrive in Victoria Aug. 30, making a 10-day tour across Canada to Ottawa. In this United Kingdom Information Office photo, he is shown waving to the crowd at a London function so he leaves the Gold-fair in the coach.

